

OMA IS THE ONLY STATEWIDE ASSOCIATION PROMOTING THE ENTIRE MASONRY INDUSTRY IN OHIO

OMA is a leader in EDUCATION.

OMA provides AIA Nationally Accredited Courses from the National Concrete Masonry Association and the Brick Industry Association. Lunch and Learn seminars educate designers on the design, structural code compliance, specifications, installation, aesthetics, maintenance, new products, and energy compliance of masonry wall systems.

OMA MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS AND SERVICES

OMA provides members up-to-date educational programs to keep current with issues affecting the masonry industry including Silica, Energy Codes, Fire Codes, changes in ASTM Specifications, and Storm Shelter Guidelines.

OMA staff or members attend conventions and shows to keep masonry fresh in the minds of designers. These include the SEAoO CSI / AIS Chapters, School Board Show and Design Columbus.

OMA shares resources with national masonry associations for mutual industry benefit. By working with the NCMA, BIA, MCAA, PC and The Masonry Society, OMA keeps its members current on innovations as well as national code and building standards.

OMA continues to work with Ohio colleges and universities supporting the student design masonry classes. OMA and its members work closely with vocational schools in hopes to increase enrollment that continues to provide labor into the market.

Stay active and informed within your industry of the promotional efforts OMA is working on to keep masonry the choice of decision makers.

LEGAL SERVICES PLAN

WHAT IS IT?

The Ohio Masonry Association has entered into an agreement with the law firm of Auman, Mahan, and Furry to provide the OMA membership with this unique service.

HOW DO I USE THE PLAN?

Auman, Mahan, and Furry specializes in labor and employment law, discrimination, wage-hour, prevailing wage, workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, construction law, construction claims disputes, government contract disputes, occupational safety and health, pensions, fringe benefits, collective bargaining, litigation, and business law; including taxes and securities. The firm represents numerous business clients and various associations throughout the Midwest, including OMA.

WHAT IF I NEED ADDITIONAL HELP?

Additional legal services will be offered to members at a preferred hourly basis. Court costs, filing fees, and miscellaneous disbursements would be paid for by the member, and itemized by the firm.

WHAT DOES IT COVER?

The primary purpose of this service is to provide OMA members the opportunity to discuss and identify legal problems, and to resolve general questions and concerns quickly through convenient access to specialized and qualified legal counsel. Each OMA member is entitled to one 30 minute consultation per month either by telephone, email, or office conference, at no charge. It is understood that these consultations and conferences will be based on existing knowledge of the attorney without further research and analysis. When calling Auman, Mahan, and Furry, please ask for Gary Auman and identify yourself as a OMA Member calling under the Legal Services Plan.
